A TRIP THAT CHANGES EVERYTHING

Build a school and learn firsthand about the joys and challenges of a traditional way of life in rural India. Connect with the local people and communities while exploring the colourful world around you. Recharge and reflect on your discoveries under arched pavilions in our bespoke Araveli Cottages and Tented Camp, surrounded by the picturesque pink hills of Rajasthan. This is your time to change the world.

Build.

Build a school hand-in-hand with the local community.

TRAVEL WITH PURPOSE

Each trip focuses on bonding, learning and growing closer to your group and the WE Villages partner community you visit. Our unique partnership with WE Charity offers travelers the opportunity to interact and engage with unique and welcoming cultures, people and communities—building a legacy as you help build projects like schools and medical facilities alongside local communities.

- Volunteer on a sustainable development project alongside community members.
- Visit a vibrant local market.
- Practice the art of Indian cooking.
- Learn about family life from local women.
- Explore Udaipur, known as the Venice of the East.

WE Charity's long-standing and deep ties with the communities provide an authentic and meaningful experience as you engage with the local people.

"Our family trip was beyond life-changing. It not only gave us greater perspective, but strengthened our family bond. I know it will be an experience that will stay with us for a lifetime."

—OLGA MIKLAS

WE CHARITY

WE Charity empowers change with resources that create sustainable impact. WE Charity does this through domestic programs like WE Schools and internationally through WE Villages. Half of all ME to WE profits are donated to WE Charity, while the other half is reinvested into ME to WE to grow its social mission.
